Most of us have known Robert from working at Evolution Customs these last 7 years (another great shop here in Arizona.) He now owns his own shop...

Yes guys he has taken over Evil Twin

Robert is one of my best friends, someone who I trust with all my heart. We hit it off right from the start more 7 years ago. Evil Twin will be family owned and operated, with Robert's wife and children helping him. Robert kept the employees and said: they are all having a blast working together everyday. As we talked about things, he told me about all his plans on up coming runs and events and all the shops specials he will be running. Wait till you guys see the shop. The whole look has changed.
